

The Executive Order of the Ohio Commodore

Whereas, this citizen, by actions and accomplishments, has exemplified devotion to duty and honor in the true tradition of Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry; and

Whereas, this citizen has displayed outstanding courage of conviction and determination of action in upholding the true historical legacy of Commodore Perry; and

Whereas, this citizen has, by words, deeds, and accomplishments, showered dignity and honor on the State of Ohio and has given unselfishly of his time, ability, and leadership; and

Whereas, this distinguished citizen, through eternal devotion, has secured for the State of Ohio an even stronger measure of world leadership and etched deeper the name "Ohio" in the hallowed pages of history; and

Whereas, this honored citizen has further pledged continuing and undivided service, loyalty, and allegiance to the State of Ohio and to her citizens' well-being, is appointed to The Executive Order of The Ohio Commodore, and shall hereafter be entitled to all of the honors and privileges inherent in this exalted rank. In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the Great Seal of The State of Ohio to be affixed, at Columbus, this seventh day of December, in the Year of Our Lord, two thousand, and eight.

Ravi Kunduru

Jed Strickland

Governor

